

Welcome

Welcome to Antaeon Solutions. If you paid a great deal of attention during your studies of Greek mythology, you might remember a giant named Antaeus who was invincible so long as he could touch Earth. As financial services professionals, each with over twenty years of hands-on, bottom-line management experience, we understand the disconnect that often occurs between development of strategy and the critical task of implementation. That is why our practice is concentrated in areas where we can always remain in touch with our experience. We maintain an unwavering commitment to The Antaeon Advantage, nurturing relationships formed with a small number of clients through a mutual selection process. Our thoughtful approach bridges those gaps that often exist in traditional consulting practices.

About

Antaeon Solutions provides and implements experienced-based, cost-effective and results-oriented consulting services to selective clients in the financial services industry.

We assist our senior management clientele in the development of pragmatic business strategies and provide our clients with the expertise needed to support successful implementation of targeted initiatives. Our consulting philosophy includes three major tenets.

Focus: Nurture long-standing relationships with our clients

Goals: Deliver tangible results in a cost-effective manner

Services: Provide and implement creative solutions for all endeavors of the enterprise, including:

Strategic Planning	Business Process Innovation	Program & Project Management	Program & Project Risk Management	System Selection & Deployment
Comprehensive Internal Business Review (CIBR)	Revenue Enhancement & Expense Recovery	Project Management Readiness	Management Coaching & Organizational Development	Acquisition Planning & Integration

The Antaeon Advantage

We're not just another consulting firm. Our long-standing relationships and our unwavering commitment to our clients provide The Antaeon Advantage – a synonymous accolade for quality and satisfaction. That is why we consistently qualify for and maintain a preferred vendor status with clients that include several of the 10 largest banking firms in the country.

Expertise

Each of our Principals has over twenty years of hands-on, bottom-line management experience in change-oriented, high-performance financial service environments. As independent entrepreneurs, our team remains at the forefront of disciplines which constitute our expertise:

Treasury Services

Corporate Trust

Retirement Services

Wealth Management

Financial Services Operations

Team

In 1997, Jim Kemp and Randy Ripple merged their consulting practices to form Antaeon Solutions, LLC. In 2004, the partnership significantly expanded its capacity to meet its clients' needs when Kate Beck-Korst, Bob Cooley, Judy Freeman and Bill Harris joined as Principals of the firm. Each has been closely associated with Jim, Randy, and the Antaeon Solutions' clients since 1997.
